Dear Sir :

Our mutual friend, Dr. Frits Holm, who at present is in Paris, France, has suggested to me, that I write you with reference to the insignia of the Grand Cross of the Royal Victoria Order, which belonged to my late father, Major General C. H. Arendrup of the Danish Army on whom King Edward bestowed this decoration in April 1904, when on visit of State to the Danish court at Copenhagen.-

I am desirous of disposing of these insignia, which consist of the Grand Cross Star to wear on the left chest and the Cross to wear on the left hip attached to the large blue & red silkscarf with bow which is worn across from right shoulder to left hip.

The insignia are packed in the original leather case from Collingwood & Co, 46 Conuit Street, London and is marked indicating the number of Grand Cross decorations issued up till then.

The insignia are made of silver and enamel and my price is $ 40.00 to be paid ,when goods are received and found to be o.k.

Very truly yours

Emil Henne
